Expert On Rehabilitation Of Shoulder Injuries

Tuesday, February 27 at 7 p.m.

BUFFALO, NY – Tim L. Uhl, PhD, ATC, PT, associate professor and director of the musculoskeletal research laboratory at the University of Kentucky, will speak at Canisius College on Tuesday, February 27 at 7:00 p.m. in the Regis Room of the Richard E. Winter '42 Student Center. His lecture, entitled "Assessment and Management of Scapular Dysfunction in Shoulder Injuries," is free and open to the public.

A recognized expert on the assessment and rehabilitation of shoulder injuries, Uhl has presented his work at numerous national and international sports medicine symposiums and served as guest editor for a special edition of the Journal of Athletic Training, entitled "Evaluation of Shoulder Injuries in the Athlete."

Uhl's lecture is made possible through the Peter Canisius Distinguished Teaching Professorship Program and Michael G. Dolan, MA, ATC, CSCS, Peter Canisius Distinguished Teaching Professor. For more information, contact Dolan at 716-888-2964.

Canisius College is one of 28 Jesuit colleges in the nation and the premier private college in Western New York. Canisius prepares leaders – intelligent, caring, faithful individuals – able to pursue and promote excellence in their professions, their communities and their service to humanity.
