

New Look for A Cherished Tradition

The UK College of Nursing Alumni Association has worked with Jim Coleman, Ltd. to redesign our pin as we prepare for the College's 50th anniversary in 2010.

The familiar abstract of crossed arms, fondly referred to as the "boomerangs" and the school name, now embedded in blue enamel, are still part of the design. However, the new pin is smaller, at 7/8th in diameter.

BSN graduates who participated in the December 2008 Pinning Ceremony were the first to receive the newly designed pin. The College of Nursing Alumni Association is offering all alumni the new design with or without a charm attachment.
