

PHILIP R. CURD, MD, MSPH

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- August 1998 - present      Assistant Professor Department of Preventive Medicine & Environmental Health,
University of Kentucky
Work Areas: research in effective environmental and policy approaches to cardiovascular health; maintained and updated monthly a compendium of best practices in community-based cardiovascular health promotion (completed, 12/03); research in Kentucky hospital involvement in community health promotion; direct patient care at occupational medicine clinics, travel medicine clinics, and Kentucky correctional institutions; precepting family medicine and occupational medicine residents; heading a wellness initiative by Kentucky Department of Corrections.
- August 1998 - Present      Consultant in occupational health and wellness programs.
February 2001- Present      Owner/Director WorkingWell, LLC
October 2001 - January 2003      Chair, Berea Hospital Board of Directors
Accomplishments: Provided leadership for strategic planning, transition in executive function, and identification of a capital partner to assure the future of the hospital
- August 1996 - July 1998:      Resident in Preventive Medicine
University of Kentucky
Medical Director, White House Clinic (August 1996- October 1997)
Interim Executive Director, White House Clinic (May 1997 - December 1997) Accomplishments: transitional stability, organizational structure building
- February 1973 - July 1996:      Health Help, Inc. (White House clinic)
McKee, Kentucky
Founded organization in 1972. Worked as family physician and Medical Director.
Accomplishments: establishment of comprehensive medical services in a rural community; recruitment of other physicians and practitioners; technical assistance to industry regarding environmental hazards; performance improvement procedures.
- October 1972 - June 1973:      Clinician with the Jackson County Kentucky Board of Health
October 1970 - May 1972:      Kauai Medical Group. Family Practice
July 1970 - August 1970:      Chicago Board of Education. Head Start Physician
July 1969 - June 1970:      Evanston Hospital. Evanston, Illinois. Internship.
July 1963 - June 1965:      Peace Corps Volunteer. Republic of Guinea, West Africa.

ACADEMIC HISTORY

|               |   |
|---------------|---|
| January, 2000 | Certification by American Board of Preventive Medicine as a specialist in Public Health and General Preventive Medicine |
| 1996 - 1999   | University of Kentucky Medical School. MSPH   |
| 1965 - 1969   | University of Kentucky Medical School. MD   |
| 1961 - 1963   | University of Louisville. BA  |
| 1959 - 1961   | Hanover College (No degree)   |

ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES

|          |  |
|----------|--|
| 7/05     | “Integrating Wellness into Residential Corrections-Associated Substance Abuse Programs.” Contract with Kentucky Department of Corrections to conduct this study.   |
| 5/20/05  | “Addressing Communication Issues with International Medical Graduates.” A report submitted to the East Kentucky Family Practice residency program.   |
| 9/31/04  | “Primary Care of the Injured Worker.” Presentation to residents at East Kentucky Family Practice Residency. Hazard, KY.  |
| 9/04     | “Physician Roles in Improving Cardiovascular Health: Counseling Patients and Involvement in the Community.” Journal of the Kentucky Medical Association vol 102:433-442. Philip Curd is lead author.                                    |
| 8/4/04   | “Hearing Your Patients, and Motivating Them to Change.” Presentation to residents at East Kentucky Family Practice Residency. Hazard, KY.  |
| 7/04     | Unpaid consultant to Jackson County (Kentucky) Health Department regarding economic viability of its ambulance service.  |
| 5/19/04  | “The Employer’s Role in Worksite Health Promotion.” Presentation to an employer group in Martin County, Kentucky.  |
| 5/27/04  | “A Healthier, More Productive Employee – The Employer’s Role.” Keynote Speaker. Sponsored by Kentucky Office of Women’s Physical & Mental Health and The Medical Center. Bowling Green, Ky.  |
| 5/13/04  | “A Healthier, More Productive Employee – The Employer’s Role.” Keynote Speaker. Sponsored by Kentucky Office of Women’s Physical & Mental Health, Greater Louisville, Inc., and National Association of Women Business Owners. Louisville, KY. |
| 4/04     | Unpaid consultant to Cumberland Valley (Kentucky) District Health Department and Jackson County Health Improvement Partners in developing a plan for comprehensive community-based health promotion.   |
| 12/31/03 | “Compendium of References for Community Activities to Promote Cardiovascular Health”. Final installment of an electronic database and narrative report. Under contract with the Kentucky Department for Public Health.                         |
| 12/5/03  | “Preliminary Report of Kentucky Hospital Community Cardiovascular Health Survey.” Presented to Kentucky Cardiovascular Health Coalition.   |
| 12/5/03  | “Preliminary Report of Kentucky Hospital Community Cardiovascular Health Survey.” Unpublished report.  |
| 10/28/03 | “A Healthier, More Productive Employee – The Employer’s Role.” Keynote Speaker. Sponsored by Kentucky Office of Women’s Physical & Mental Health and the Four Rivers Health Care Coalition. Paducah, KY.                                       |

- 7/1/03 “Augmenting the Role of Kentucky Hospitals in Community Promotion of Cardiovascular Health”. Principal Investigator. A Kentucky hospital survey funded by Good Samaritan Foundation Grant 04-38, $24,590.
- 7/02 – “A Compendium of References for Community Activities to Promote Cardiovascular Health.” Submitted monthly updates to Kentucky Department for Public Health.
- 6/03 “The Kentucky Worksite Cardiovascular Health Survey: Report of Survey Findings.” Report submitted to the Kentucky Department for Public Health.
- 7/02 “The Kentucky Worksite Cardiovascular Health Survey: Report of Survey Findings.” Report submitted to the Kentucky Department for Public Health.
- 5/9/02 “The Ideal Worksite Wellness Program,” Workshop for Kentucky’s 18th Annual Governor’s safety & Health Conference. Louisville, KY.
- 4/02 “Model Policies for Promoting Cardiovascular Health at the Worksite.” A report submitted to the Kentucky Department for Public Health
- 4/02 “A Proposed Plan for Evaluating the Effectiveness of the Kentucky Cardiovascular Health Coalition.” Report submitted to the Kentucky Department for Public Health.
- 2/02 “Community Environmental Cardiovascular Health Survey.” An instrument developed in collaboration with the Kentucky Department for Public Health.
- 2/02 “Community Factors Affecting Cardiovascular Health in Kentucky: Report of a Key Informant Survey.” Submitted to Kentucky Department for Public Health.
- 5/24/01 “An Evaluation of the Coalition’s Plan.” Presentation to Kentucky Cardiovascular Health Coalition, Frankfort, KY.
- 5/18/01 “Roles of the Family Physician in Worksite Wellness”. Presentation to Kentucky Academy of Family Physicians, Annual Scientific Assembly, Louisville, KY.
- 2/22/01 “A Worksite-Based Approach to Promoting Cardiovascular Health.” Presentation to University of Kentucky Family Medicine Review, Lexington, KY
- &
5/24/01
- 7/24/00 “Preventive Medicine Board Exam Flash Tables.” Self-Published study aid
- 11/16/00 “A Comprehensive Plan for Employee Wellness.” Presentation to preventive medicine residents, University of Kentucky.
- 6/28/00 “How to Study for Preventive Medicine Board Exams.” Presentation to preventive medicine residents, University of Kentucky.
- 6/22/00 “Better Cardiovascular Health Through Better Policy & Better Environment. Models for Kentucky.” Presentation to 2nd meeting of Kentucky Coalition for Cardiovascular Health. Lexington, KY.
- 6/99 “Advance Care Planning Reconsidered: Toward an Operational Definition of Outpatient Advance Care Planning”. Journal of Palliative Medicine. 2(2):157-159. Philip Curd is sole author.
- 4/22/99 “Using the National Health Information Infrastructure to Promote Public Health.” Presentation to preventive medicine residents, University of Kentucky.
- 3/11/99 “Effectively Participating With Patients in Advance Planning for End-of-Life Decisions: A Guideline for Primary Care Physicians.” Thesis accepted by Graduate School, University of Kentucky.
- 9/98 “The Design Screening Tests.” Epidemiology class lecture, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY.
- 4/3/97 “Pearls from Prevention97 Conference.” Presented noon conf to University of KY Department of Preventive and Occupational Medicine. Lexington, KY.
- 12/10/96 “The White House Clinic Story – meeting community health needs” Presented noon conf to University of KY Dept. Family Practice. Lexington, KY

12/96 "Surveillance." Epidemiology class presentation. University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY.

AWARDS

5/18/01 New Ventures Competition. 2nd Place, $10,000 award
11/17/99 The Defiance College (Ohio) Humanitarian Award
12/95 Dedication of White House Clinic Building in McKee, Ky., to Bill Diehl and Philip R. Curd
10/92 Health Hero Award. 1992
Fayette County Medical Society
7/92 Schrivers Award
Award for humanitarian service. The National Peace Corps Association
11/90 Aaron L Brown, Jr. Award
For outstanding service and contributions in Primary Care (From the Ky. Primary Care Assn.)

ORGANIZATIONS

American College of Preventive Medicine
American Public Health Association
Jackson County Board of Health
Jackson County Ambulance Board
Jackson County Development Association
Kentucky Primary Care Association
Kentucky Public Health Association
Kentucky Medical Association

Date of this resume: November, 2005