

Michelle Lineberry, MA

Michelle Lineberry serves as the Director of Practice and Service at the University of Kentucky College of Public Health. She is responsible for identifying practicum opportunities for students at the local, state, federal, and international levels, as well as ensuring that those practical experiences facilitate students' mastery of the Core Competencies for Public Health Professionals. Ms. Lineberry also coordinates and tracks faculty, staff, and student service efforts in collaboration with the public health practice community in response to formal and informal needs assessments.

Michelle joined the College of Public Health in February 2010 after nearly eight years of service in the College of Medicine, where she coordinated numerous research projects and collaborated in the development, delivery, and evaluation of workshops for medical students and residents. She earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in psychology from the University of Dayton in Ohio. Ms. Lineberry is also a Certified Clinical Research Professional and has served on the University of Kentucky Medical Institutional Review Board.